YORKSHIRE AGAIN

KENT DEFEATED IN LOW-SCORING GAME.

Rhodes 6 for 48 on Difficult Wicket.

FREEMAN 8 FOR 105.

Exciting Finish Witnessed at Tonbridge

London, Yesterday.

A. C. Rhodes, who has revealed brilliant bowling abilities this season, was largely responsible for Yorkshire's narrow victory over Kent at Tonbridge to-day. In the home county's second innings he captured 6 wickets for 48 runs to dismiss Kent for 75.

Requiring only 65 runs for victory Yorkshire were hard pressed and only just managed to record their third victory of the season by the narrow margin of four wickets.

Battling first at Tonbridge the home county were dismissed for 196 after having collected 122 for the loss of 4 wickets at the tea interval on Saturday, their remaining six wickets adding only 74 runs on a soft wicket which gave the bowler every assistance.

Yorkshire also found the wicket very difficult but, in spite of excellent bowling by "Tich" Freeman in the early stages, they managed to secure a lead of 11 runs on the first innings. Freeman in his first spell was deadly, but in the later stages was heavily punished to return the figures of 8 wickets for 105 runs.

In their second venture Kent failed miserably before A. C. Rhodes who dismissed the side for 75. He was the master of the situation throughout and bowled unchanged through the innings.

Requiring only 65 runs to win Yorkshire received a fright when half the side were dismissed for 40; but dogged batting saved the day and Yorkshire won by four wickets. It was a very low scoring match on a difficult wicket, 36 wickets falling for only 545 runs.

This was Yorkshire's third victory of the season and has placed them seventh in the table with 50 points. The counties above Yorkshire are Kent (77), Sussex (76), Lancashire (71), Middlesex (69), Surrey (66) and Nottingham (62). This was Kent's first defeat of the season.

Scores as cabled by Reuter were as follows:—

Kent: 196 and 75 (A. C. Rhodes 6 for 48).
Yorkshire: 207 (Freeman 8 for 105);
67 for 6 wickets.

AN UNEVENTFUL WEEK IN INDIA.

Community Feeling Still Intense in Bombay.

London, Yesterday.

The Secretary for India, Sir Samuel Hoare, reported to the House of Commons that the past week in India had been uneventful, the only feature being further unsuccessful attempts to hold Congress Conference.

In Bombay the feeling between the two communities remained intense. — British Wireless Service.

MANCHUKUO POST OFFICES MAY BE CLOSED.

Dispute Over Use Of Words.

Nanking, To-day.

The possibility of the closing-down of the Post Offices in Manchuria is foreseen if the Manchukuo authorities persist in certain demands, including the use of the words "Tatung Dynasty" instead of "Republic of China" on chops, official documents, etc. — Reuter.

DR. GOUGULOFF TO STAND TRIAL.

Wilful Murder of M. Doumer.

DEFENCE'S DEMAND REJECTED.

No Supplementary Examination.

Paris, To-day.

Dr. Gouguloff, the assassin of M. Paul Doumer, President of the French Republic, has committed for trial on a charge of wilful murder.

The court rejected the defence's demand for a supplementary judicial examination. — Reuter.

Maitre Geraud, the defender of the assassin of M. Jaures, the famous French Socialist Leader, in 1914, is conducting the defence of Gouguloff.

Mentally Unbalanced? Dr. Gouguloff is a Russian of immense build. He is 37 years of age, born at Lapenskaya in 1895. He is married and lived at Monaco with his wife.

He is regarded as being mentally unbalanced, and after the crime told the Police that it was his duty to do what he did. He also claims that he kidnapped the Lindbergh baby.

"I have spent more than Frs. 60,000 to have him kidnapped," he declared. "The boy will be held as hostage and raised to manhood by Russian terrorists." Gouguloff is described as being a very religious man and was a regular attendant at Mass.

When he left Monaco he informed his wife that he was going to Paris to sell some of his books, and made his will before leaving, "in case of accident." He always carried two revolvers for protection. After the crime a notebook was found in his pocket, containing "The Confessions of Gouguloff, who killed the President of the French Republic."

HARBIN FIGHTING CONTINUES.

Japanese Successes.

3,000 ANTI-MANCHUKUO TROOPS ROUTED.

Harbin, To-day.

Battles between the forces of the Japanese and Manchukuo against the elements opposing the new regime still continue. After a sharp engagement to the east of Halluin, 3,000 anti-Manchukuo troops, after suffering heavy losses, were compelled to retreat. The Japanese losses are officially stated to be one killed and four wounded.

Four hundred "Red Spears" and a hundred anti-Manchukuo troops were defeated when they attacked the Japanese and Manchukuo garrisons at Ashiho. The attackers retreated after seven hours' fighting, in which they lost over 150 men. — Reuter.

NOTED GEOLOGIST DROWNED.

An Scientific Expedition in Peru.

JOHN WALTER GREGORY.

Author of Over 200 Scientific Papers.

Lima, Peru, To-day.

John Walter Gregory, noted Geologist, was drowned in the Urubama River while he was leading an expedition to study the Volcanic movements of the region. — Reuter.

Led Many Expeditions.

The late John Walter Gregory, F.R.S., LL.D., D.Sc., F.G.S., M.I.M.M., was one of the most noted Geologists in Great Britain. His work took him from one end of the world to the other and he was the author of numerous publications, both technical and general.

At the age of 68 he was still active enough to lead an expedition in the wilds of Peru where he met his death. Spitzbergen, Tibet, Central Australia, British East Africa and the Antarctic are only a few of the places to which his work took him.

He received honours from numerous countries and Universities. He was born in Scotland and from 1904 to 1929 was Professor of Geology at the University of Glasgow.

Among his books were "Human Migration and the Future" and "The Menace of Colour." He published over 200 scientific papers on the Geology of Mountains in various parts of the world.

MR. HENDERSON ON DISARMAMENT.

"The Conference Did Not Fail."

POLITICIANS, NOT EXPERTS, MUST SOLVE PROBLEM.

Premiers in Geneva.

Geneva, To-day.

Disarmament could only be solved by politicians, not by experts declared Mr. Arthur Henderson, chairman of the Disarmament Conference, addressing a Deputation from the International Disarmament Organisation.

The Conference had not failed though progress had not been what was desired and he was still optimistic, he said.

Geneva, Later.
Premier Ramsay MacDonald and Premier M. Herriot have arrived. — Reuter.

THEFT OF LEAD.

Dodwell Employees Jailed.

Three Chinese, employed by Messrs. Dodwell & Co., Ltd., pleaded guilty before Mr. Grantham in the Central Police Court this morning to a charge of the theft of four pieces of lead, belonging to their employers. They were arrested in Wing Kat Street trying to dispose of the goods.

Mr. S. C. Salter, who appeared as complainant, said first defendant had been employed as a plumber for about four years. He earned $1.65 a day. The second and third defendants were plumber coolies and earned 65 cents each per day.

First defendant was fined $50 or one month while a fine of $10 or 14 days was imposed on each of the other two men.

BRITAIN'S ATTITUDE TO THE CHILEAN JUNTA.

SERIOUS VIEW TAKEN OF CONFISCATORY MEASURES

ASSURANCE OF PROTECTION FOR BRITISHERS GIVEN

London, Yesterday.

The grave view taken here of the confiscatory measures outlined in the decrees of the new Junta in Chile was expressed by the Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, Captain Eden, in reply to questions in the House of Parliament. He said that President Alessandri's Government was overthrown on June 4 as the result of a coup d'etat executed by the Air Force and the Army, and had been replaced by a Junta of three persons who had appointed the Cabinet.

Decrees had been issued, firstly declaring the Central Bank to be a State Bank, retaining the shares of Chile's and foreign banks and private individuals at their nominal value, and giving bonds in exchange, suppressing the Directorate and arrogating complete control to the Junta, and secondly, similarly taking over all foreign currency deposits in all banks.

"His Majesty's Government have not entered into official relations with the present Government," he said, "but the Charge d'Affaires has been instructed to inform them that His Majesty's Government take a most serious view of these confiscatory measures, and if they are carried through, will strongly support a demand for full compensation for the British interests affected."

In a reply to similar representations made respecting the protection of British lives and property, His Majesty's Charge d'Affaires has received an assurance that adequate Police protection will be provided for British subjects. — British Wireless Service.

Strong Feeling.

Santiago, Chile, To-day.

The struggle for power between the rival elements in the new Government has not ceased here with the resignation of Da

Vila from the Junta where there was strong feeling against him by the Left Group, fanned by bitter newspaper attacks. — Reuter.

UNFAVOURABLE BALANCE.

British Trade Returns for May.

EXPORTS VALUE DECLINE HEAVILY.

Smaller Drop in Imports.

London, To-day.

The returns of Overseas Trade in May show that the value of imports was $55,735,240 as compared with $55,489,187 in the previous month, and $59,628,484 in May of last year.

Exports during the month were valued at $34,595,524 as against $39,428,098 in the previous month, and $39,642,284 in May of last year.

The value of manufactured articles exported declined by $3,892,344 as compared with $3,981,131 in May, 1931. This figure included a drop of $3,269,087 in the value of exports of vehicles, including locomotives and ships, machinery and iron and steel manufactures.

DASTARDLY DISCOVERY AT PICNIC SPOT.

NEAR ASHFORD KENT.

Grandmother, Mother & Daughter Dead.

BODY PROTRUDES FROM UNDERGROWTH.

Seen By Bus Conductor.

London, To-day.

A bus conductor's discovery of a woman's body protruding from the undergrowth at Kingswood, a popular week-end picnic spot near Ashford, Kent, started a chain of gruesome finds within a few hundred yards. The bodies of an older woman and a girl were roughly concealed in broken brushwood.

Mary, hours elapsed before the bodies were identified as the grandmother, mother, and daughter — Mrs. June Swift (65) of Ye Old Sportsman's Inn, near Whitehall, Mrs. Jennie Stamp (45) and Peggy Stamp (18), respectively. All were about 5 foot 6 inches tall, and had dark hair. The bodies were found in a ditch, the driver, in the car, five-seater.

PLOT TO KILL MUSSOLINI RECALLED.

Orders From Italian Anarchist in London.

Rome, To-day.

The publication of a confession made by Spardelotto who attempted to assassinate Signor Mussolini, the Fascist leader, reveals that he acted under orders from an Italian anarchist living in London. — Reuter.

The plot to kill Signor Mussolini was revealed on June 5, when Spardelotto was arrested near the Palazzo Venezia, the principal seat of the Fascist Government. He had in his possession two bombs and a pistol, also a false passport.

DELEGATES LEAVE FOR LAUSANNE.

Chamberlain and Runciman to Join MacDonald.

London, Yesterday.

Chancellor of the Exchequer, Mr. Neville Chamberlain, and President of the Board of Trade, Mr. Walter Runciman, leave tomorrow for Lausanne where they will join the other Ministers of the British Delegation. They attended a meeting of the Cabinet this afternoon.

Prime Minister, Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, accompanied by the Foreign Secretary, Sir John Simon, left Paris this morning for Geneva after preliminary conversations during the week-end with Monsieur M. Herriot, French Premier, who was a passenger in the same train.

To-morrow, the heads of the delegations to the Geneva Disarmament Conference will be Sir John Simon's guests at luncheon. — British Wireless Service.

TO-DAY'S TRAFFIC COURT.

Indian Fined $45 on Three Counts.

SPEEDING CASES.

In the Traffic Court this morning, over which Mr. Schofield presided, Rahman, the Indian driver of a public car, was fined a total of $45 on three counts, namely, (a) failing to stop after running into baskets that were carried by Yu Kai, a Sanitary cooler, in Caine Road on May 29, (b) driving in Queen's Road Central in a manner that was dangerous to the public, and (c) carrying three passengers in excess.

Traffic-Sub-Inspector Saunders said that defendant drove very fast in Queen's Road Central, past the Queen's Theatre. He sounded his horn once only, and there were a number of water-carriers about at the time, going up D'Almeida Street. There were three men, two women, four children, and the driver, in the car. — Reuter.

Many Water Carriers.

Traffic-Sergeant McInnis, said, in connection with the second summons, that defendant drove very fast in Queen's Road Central, past the Queen's Theatre. He sounded his horn once only, and there were a number of water-carriers about at the time, going up D'Almeida Street. There were three men, two women, four children, and the driver, in the car. — Reuter.

DANGER PAST?

Reservoir Filling Up.

HEAVY RAINFALL CREATES OFFICIAL OPTIMISM.

Increased Supply Probable.

Hope is now entertained that the restrictions on the water supply will shortly be lifted, following the exceptional heavy fall which took place this morning. From 10.30 a.m. until 12.30 a.m. practically 4 inches of rainfall was registered at the Royal Observatory.

The Hon. Mr. H. T. Creasy, Director of Public Works, informed the "China Mail" this morning that a further increase in the hours of supply could be safely predicted to take place almost immediately. He intimated that the position would be discussed to-morrow morning at 10 a.m.

"Is the danger of the water shortage passed?" asked the "China Mail."

"It is a difficult question to answer," replied Mr. Creasy, "but I think I am right in saying it probably is."

Remarkable figures regarding the rainfall were returned from the Royal Observatory this morning. Between 10.30 a.m. and 11.30 a.m. 1.34 inches was recorded, while the next hour yielded 2.48 inches. From 10.30 a.m. yesterday the total storage of water in the Colony at 7 a.m. this morning was 1,148,000,000 gallons.

Further rainfall is expected to-day.

The following is the rainfall this month:—

For 24 hours to 10 a.m. on	Ins. Total for year to date	Average for year to date
June 1	0.00	10.64
" 2	0.07	11.01
" 3	1.22	12.23
" 4	1.03	14.16
" 5	1.86	16.02
" 6	0.13	16.15
" 7	0.05	16.20
" 8	2.14	18.34
" 9	0.52	18.86
" 10	2.13	20.99
" 11	1.02	22.01
" 12	0.08	22.09
" 13	2.82	24.91
" 14	0.59	25.50

It seems certain now that the water restrictions will be lifted.

Later.
The average rainfall up to 10 a.m. on June 15 is 31.02 inches, while the rainfall since January 1, 1932 up to 1.30 p.m. to-day is 30.62 inches, 5.02 inches of which fell between 10.30 a.m. and 1.30 to-day.

RAIN.

To-day's weather report from the Royal Observatory states:—

Pressure remains highest to the East of Hokkaido; a depression covers South China. Forecast: — S. W. winds, moderate; cloudy, rain.

NO FOREIGN CREWS WANTED FOR FRENCH SHIPS.

Aftermath of Georges Philippi Disaster.

Marseilles, To-day.
foreign crews, especially Asiatics, shall be employed on French ships, is among the series of claims addressed to the Minister of the Merchant Marine Service by the Union of Seamen at Marseilles.

The demand is a result of the Georges Philippi disaster. — Reuter.

ROUND HONG KONG'S CINEMA THEATRES

OFFICIAL SOURCES.

"POSSESSED"

Joan Crawford, who seems to give fresh evidence of an unusual acting talent with her every succeeding vehicle, is at her dramatic best in "Possessed," now screening at the Queen's Theatre.

The picture, based on the Edgar Selwyn stage play, "The Mirage," gives the star her most serious role since "Paid"—that of a poor factory girl who anxious to better her position in life, becomes involved in an affair with a young politician of wealth and social standing.

No small share of the interest in this picture is due to the fact that the politician is played by Clark Gable.

A further asset to the picture is the work of Wallace Ford in an important role, as Miss Crawford's home town admirer.

The amusing Skeets Gallagher contributes a great many laughs to the scenes in which he participates and excellent portrayals are offered by Frank Conroy, Marjorie White, John Miljan and Clara Blandick.

"SHE'S MY WEAKNESS"

All talking pictures have developed a sign language used on the "sets" during actual filming, says Melville Brown, director of Radio Pictures' farce-comedy, "She's My Weakness," which is coming to the Queen's Theatre on Thursday.

"In the days of silent films," he says, "it was a comparatively simple matter to tell a player when to enter the scene, when to laugh, or when to shoot a revolver."

"Now it isn't so simple. A director can't call out to a waiting actor because the microphone will pick up the sound. A tense silence prevails whenever the cameras are in action."

"To combat this, the first thing I do when beginning a picture is to coach the players in this sign language."

"Raising one finger means to enter; two fingers to begin talking, and so on. Sometimes, when the player is not visible and must be signalled, I have the electricians rig up a light. When it flashes on, the player knows it is his turn to enter the scene."

"THE MIRACLE MAN"

"The Miracle Man" which is now showing at the King's Theatre unfolds a powerful story, wherein the Good triumphs over Evil. It's a drama so perfectly constructed—so forcefully told, that it would have been great a hundred years ago, and still will be a great a hundred years hence.

It tells a story of redemption that will stir the emotions and cheer the hearts of millions.

Sylvia Sydney, for her exceptional performance in "Street Scene," "An American Tragedy," and "Ladies of the Big House," was showered with praise by critics everywhere. Many acclaim her the finest emotional actress in pictures.

Chester Morris appears in the role, Thomas Meighan made famous. There's a lure about Morris that women like. He has good looks, broad shoulders, and an engaging personality. His first class ability is evident in such hits as "Alibi," "The Divorcee," "The Big House," and "Cock of the Air."

Irving Pichel has the power to catch and hold audience attention. As the Atheist in "The Miracle Man" he has the role that fits him admirably.

John Wray, as the Frog, the part that made Lon Chaney famous, vividly personalizes the twisted soul and body of that infamous character.

Robert Coogan, child prodigy of "Skippy" and "Sooky," gives a poignant pathos to the character of Bobbie, the crippled boy.

Hobart Bosworth creates again the inspirational character of the aged Patriarch and faith healer, and touches dramatic heights in his portrayal.

Boris Karloff, the monster of "Frankenstein," brings a sensational ability into his underworld character of "Nikko."

The director, Norman McLeod, made "Monkey Business," then "Touchdown," both pronounced box office hits.

"GOOD SPORT"

Linda Watkins, who scored so successfully in her first motion picture, "Sob Sister," and who now plays the leading role in "Good Sport" opening next Thursday at the King's Theatre, is one screen star who believes that matrimony is not only a worth while venture for either man or woman, but a splendid institution, as well.

"While I have made the leap myself," she admitted recently, "I believe I can speak with some authority. Most of my friends are married or have been, some of them several times, and one cannot lend a sympathetic ear to repeating divorces without learning things."

Cast opposite Miss Watkins in the male lead is John Boles, star of "Seed," "One Heavenly Night" and "Rio Rita." The remaining honours go to the feminine sex, with Minna Gombell, known for her humorous portrayals in "Bad Girl" and "Sob Sister," Greta Nissen, and Hedda Hopper in the other featured roles. Claire Maynard, Louise Beaver, Sally Blane and Betty Francisco are also in the cast. Kenneth MacKenna directed the production from the screen story by William Hurlbut.

PEPYS PHYSIC WELL

Pepys Physic Well is to become the nucleus of a spa for North London—so, at least, Barnet Council hopes.

The water, it is claimed, has considerable medicinal properties and the well is being restored from the income of a trust founded by a London fishmonger in 1678.

The spot was a favourite resort of the diarist, Pepys, who paid his last visit to it in 1667. The entry in his Diary reads: "Got to Barnet 7 a.m. and there found many people drinking."

SLUMP IN 19TH CENTURY ART

98 Pictures Sold for £1,314.

London, May 12. There was a remarkable slump in 19th Century Royal Academy art at Christie's to-day, when a collection of 98 pictures, most of which at different times have been exhibited at the Academy and acclaimed as masterpieces, was sold at bargain prices.

For example, Briton Riviere's "Pallas Athene and the Herdman's dogs," which in 1884 was sold for £397, to-day fetched three and a half guineas.

Other Victorian masterpieces fared little better and the total for the sale was only £1,314, which would have bought only one picture a score of years ago.

MISS LAI MING-FAY QUESTIONED.

Relations with Fung and Accused.

ANONYMOUS LETTERS.

On resumption of the Central Magistracy trial of Cheng Kwok-yau, charged with having instigated the murder of George Fung in Village Road on March 24 last, Miss Lai Ming-fay, the girl in the case, and one of the principal witnesses for the Crown, was searchingly cross-examined by Mr. G. K. Hall Brutton, for the defence.

In the course of her replies, Miss Lai told of her stage career and private life, her relations with the accused Cheng, and her associations with Fung, the deceased, which are being suggested by the Crown as furnishing the motive for the murder.

Witness was also questioned regarding her knowledge of the deceased's private affairs, his association with other women, and the source of his income, a woman referred to as Connie or May Chan being particularly mentioned.

Mutual Coldness.

The defending solicitor's asked pointed questions as to the mutual coldness, which he suggested had crept into the relations between Miss Lai Ming-fay and the accused, and as to the existence of anonymous letters which, Mr. Brutton remarked, could give reasonable supposition that Fung had many enemies.

Provided With Money.

Mr. Brutton:—Do you know that this girl whom you call Connie or May was in the habit of sending money frequently to Fung?—I don't know that.

Do you know that since you had known Fung in Hong Kong this girl had been sending money to Fung?—I am not aware of that.

You did not know that? Would you be surprised to know that right up till February of this year 1932 this lady had been sending money to Fung?—I would be surprised, and I would not believe it. Will you be surprised to know that Connie Chan was in Hong Kong a fortnight before the murder?—I haven't the least idea about that.

And that she met Fung, and Fung didn't tell you of meeting this lady?—No.

"Would Not Believe It."

Do you know she sent money to him this year in order to enable him to go to Singapore?—I don't know about that. I would not believe it.

And if he did not go to Singapore this lady was going up to see Fung herself?—I don't know anything about that.

Do you mean to say that Fung never mentioned anything to you about this girl since February 1931?—He mentioned Connie to me. He said he had forgotten her and asked me not to worry about her.

So at one time you were worrying about Connie then?—No, I had pardoned him.

The Magistrate (Mr. Wynne-Jones) who yesterday was suffering from a slight attack of influenza, intimated that he would notify both the Crown and the defence if he were unable to continue with the hearing to-day.

SUCCESSFUL SUNDAY CONCERTS.

Peninsula Hotel Programmes.

The popularity of the Sunday evening Symphonic Concerts at the Peninsula Hotel was again demonstrated last Sunday when, in spite of the inclement weather prior to the commencement of the Concert, the usual large gathering of Hong Kong music lovers assembled in the Ground Floor Lounge.

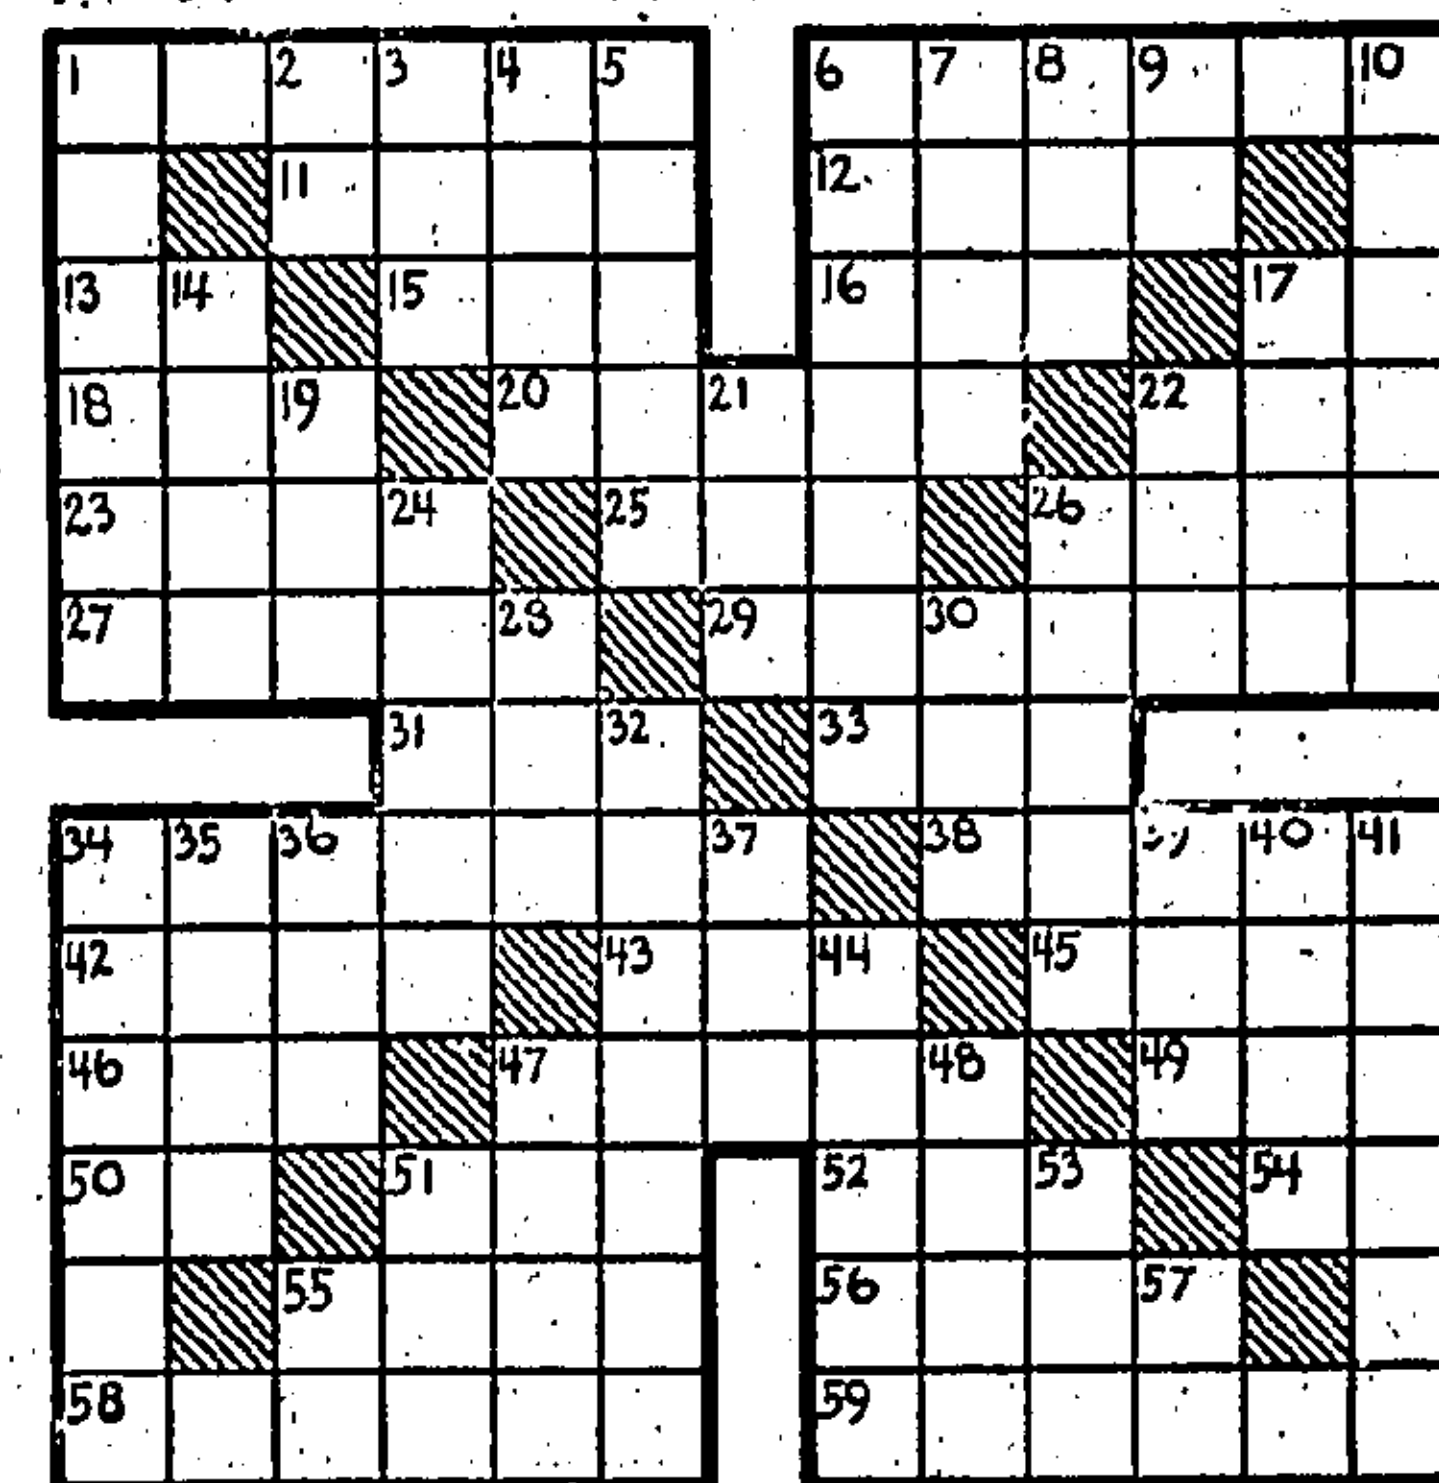

The most popular band items as evidenced by the patrons' applause were the "Valse Espana" and "Song of the Volga Boatmen." An innovation took place in the appearance of local artistes. Nura Kanis rendering a piano solo "Lotus Land." This artiste will undoubtedly be heard again in future Hong Kong programmes. Mrs. Sharpem, Soprano, accompanied by Miss Nora Flint at the piano, rendered "Valley of Laughter" and, in response to unbounded applause, "Vanity Fair."

The Peninsula Hotel Management are to be heartily congratulated on these highly successful Concerts and it must be very gratifying to them that such large numbers show their appreciation by regularly patronising these functions.

Philippine Swimmers in Action To-day

To Compete Against the Local Aquatic Stars at V.R.C.

E. B. ROZA, W. LAWRENCE AND L. ROZA
PEREIRA FOR FREE STYLE.

H. M. REMEDIOS FOR BREAST STROKE

Arrangements have been made for local swimmers to compete against the Philippine Olympic team in the V.R.C. bath at 5.15 p.m. to-day.

The distances have not yet been decided upon,
but it is anticipated that there will be two events—
100 Yards free style and 100 Yards breast stroke.
If the visitors are willing a 440 Yards breast stroke race may also be contested.

V.R.C. members who have been invited to participate in the contest, which will be of a very informal nature, are H. M. Remedios for the breast stroke race and E. B. Roza, W. Lawrence and L.
Roza Pereira for the free style race. Considering the prowess of our visitors it is highly probable that records for the V.R.C. will be broken.

ALI GOES ALL OUT IN V.R.C. BATH.

Philippines Olympic Team on View.

BOXERS IN TRAINING.

A few interested spectators gathered at the V.R.C. yesterday to see the Philippine Islands Olympic swimming contingent in training under the watchful eye of their head coach, Professor Candido Bartolome, the physical director of the University of the Philippines.
No strenuous swimming was indulged in, nor were times taken, but A. Ali, the crack sprint man, was seen all out for a few seconds over the 100 Yards.

Jikrum and Ildesonso, the 200 metres breast stroke hopes, showed great form. The ease with which they glide through the water is amazing. Jikrum is probably the better of the two, and he is credited with twice breaking the world's Olympic record. Ildesonso is also reputed to have broken the 200 metres breast stroke Olympic record.

All, who is the best short distance man in the Philippines, has times in the 50-metres and 100-metres free style which are said to compare favourably with those of the best known short distance swimmers in the world.

At the Oriental Olympic Meeting held at Tokyo, Ildesonso beat Tsuruta, who is the present holder of the World's Olympic record for the 200-metres event. By virtue of this victory, Ildesonso is now the Far Eastern champion over that distance.

It is interesting to note that Jikrum has twice beaten Ildesonso over the same distance in Manila.
The boxing team were also seen limbering up in the V.R.C. gymnasium, together with Simeon Toribio, Jose Villanueva, the bantamweight hope, is the Far Eastern amateur champion for that weight, whilst Carlo Padilla is the Far Eastern welterweight champion.

I wonder how long it will be before some inventive brain will give us a hard court with a suitable surface which will retain its pliability and at the same time remain entirely impervious to front? There is a fortune to be made by the man who fills upon the necessary ingredients—C.W.
Banks and Yorkshire Tennis Legions.

SWITZERLAND AND THE DAVIS CUP.

Unexpected Resistance Against Italy.

FISHER BEATS PALMIERI IN FIVE SETS.

Montreux, Yesterday.
Switzerland are fighting
heroically for the right to play
Japan in the semi-final round of the European Zone of the Davis Cup, but Italy, at the conclusion of the first three matches, lead by the odd match. A later cable states that no play was possible today, so that the two remaining singles matches, of vital interest to Switzerland, have been postponed until to-morrow.

Full results as cabled by Reuter were as follow:—

Fisher (Switzerland) beat
Palmieri (Italy) 6-8, 6-4, 4-6, 6-1, 6-3.

De Stefani (Italy) beat
Aeschliman (Switzerland) 6-4, 7-5, 8-6.

Sertorio and Palmieri
(Italy) beat Aeschliman and Fischer (Switzerland) 3-6, 6-4, 6-4, 6-4.

Fischer's victory over Palmieri was a brilliant triumph for the Swiss player, and his stamina and dazzling display in the fourth and fifth sets have marked him as a player of infinite resource.
Palmieri twice held the upper hand, but failed to stop his opponent forcing him to play a game foreign to him. The strategy of Fischer throughout was brilliantly executed and gave the spectators the impression that he was playing with Palmieri as a cat would with a mouse.

Aeschliman strove hard to improve Switzerland's position, but though he rose to great heights at times he found De Stefani too formidable an opponent. Though the Italian won in straight sets he was clearly puzzled at periods during the match, and at no time revealed the form which was responsible for the elimination of H. G. N. Lee, the young British player, in the French Championships at Auteuil.
Though both Swiss players acquitted themselves with credit in the doubles match, the Italians had the match well in hand, in spite of the closeness of the scores.

OMAR ENTERS FIRST ROUND PROPER.

Champion's Easy Win
Over Whant.

NARROW WIN FOR GUTIERREZ.

Three matches in the preliminary round of the Lawn Bowls Open Championship were decided on the Police R.C. rinks yesterday afternoon with the following results:—

U. M. Omar (holder) beat L.
Whant 21-6.
W. Mair beat D. Clow 22-11.
L. A. Gutierrez beat J. F.
Lunny 21-20.

Omar won the Open Championship last year by defeating J.
Lainy by 21-14 thereby registering his second success in the Open, having won the title as far back as 1923. His match yesterday, however, saw him little extended against a very mediocre player.

The first round proper will witness duels between the following:
Omar v. S. Deacon or A. M.
Holland.

Mair v. F. Goodwin or A.
Chapman.
Gutierrez v. R. Marks or A. A.
Razack.

BRITISH ATHLETES

OLYMPIC PROBABLES
SEEN IN ACTION.Hampson's Fine Half Mile.

LORD BURGHLY'S WIN.

London, May 17.
Britain's Olympic "probables" were seen in action on the new track at the White City, where the British Games, promoted annually by the News of the World S.C. drew a crowd of well over 30,000 in spite of the inclement weather.

Although there were no new records set up, every event in the International contest between the leading British and Continental clubs had its thrill, the outstanding race of a wonderful afternoon's sport being the duel between Tommy Hampson, the A.A.A. half-mile champion, and his French rival, Serf Martin, holder of the world's 800 metres record. Hampson won after a race which had the crowd on their toes from the start. The Englishman led from the gun and kept in front up to a furlong from home, where Martin went up, but with eighty yards to go Hampson produced one of his electrifying bursts of speed to take the lead again. The Frenchman went after his rival, but Hampson breasted the tape with a good three yards to spare in 1m. 57.1/8s.

Lord Burghly, the idol of every crowd at home and abroad, romped home in the 120 yards hurdles, after a couple of false starts which had got them all on the jump. Trossbach was best away at the third attempt, but the Englishman was level at the half distance and ran in nine yards ahead of the German in 15.3/10 sec.

A ragged start also featured the short sprint, after two breakaways, in which P. P. Reid, the Scottish champion from Edinburgh University appeared the worst sufferer. Reid, however, was on terms at 50 yards, and won by a couple of feet from the Achilles man, E. J. Davis, with another Englishman, T. A. B. Parselle, of the Milocarians, another foot away—time 9.9/10 sec. Jerry Cornes beat a rather moderate field in the mile—he indulged D. W. Price (Milocarian), the old Light Blue, with the lead until the bell, when the old Mark Blue went in front to win comfortably in 4.25.2/5 which compares badly with R. H. Thomas's 4.20 in the open mile. Thomas, as usual, made his own pace, and was never extended.

Britain's sprint "hope" of Los Angeles, E. L. Page, won the open hundred, beating two more from the Blackheath Harriers in Parkes and Ward in 10.1/5. Leonard Hobbs (S.L.H.) son of the famous cricketer, filling fourth place. The "Heathens" also won the open relay "flash" over a hundred yards. Beardon, Symington and Parkes, their B team, beating the Surrey A. C. Trio in 10.9/10, figures which prove the value of baton-changing practice. The level four miles between the six members of England's winning international cross-country team went to the National champion, Alec Burns, of Elswick. Tom Evenson, the leader at Brussels, being an absentee. Potts (Salford H.) was second, and Jack Holden, of Tipton, third, but to the crowd's disappointment, Walter Beavers was beaten into fifth place, behind George Bailey (Salford H.).

Achilles Club scored their usual victory in the International match, totalling 42 points. Stade Français and Milocarian A.C. were next with 33, with Berliner S.C. (31). Atlanta Club (19), and the Royal Beerschot A.C. (Brussels) (9) next in order. The Milocarian Club, which was only founded in 1930, draws its members from Sandhurst and Woolwich, the Military Colleges, and Cranwell, the R.A.F. College.

GRAND PARADE
DESTROYED.Winner of Sensational Derby.

Grand Parade, the property of Lord Glanely, who was the first horse to win the Derby when racing was resumed at Epsom in 1919 following on the war, was found last month in his box at the Exning Stud, Newmarket, with a broken leg, and was destroyed.

The death of Grand Parade recalls one of the most sensational Derby's in recent years, for it was the year when The Panther, following on his easy victory in the Two Thousand Guineas, started one of the hottest favourites on record, but failed to finish in the first three.

The race was won by Grand Parade, who, starting at 33-1, easily got the better of Buchanan and Paper Money, with The Panther almost last.

Apart from Grand Parade, Lord Glanely was also represented in the race by Dominion, a colt who had previously won the Newmarket Spring Stakes, and was generally regarded as being superior to his stable companion.

Grimmett and Ponsford for England?Oldfield Says Slow Bowler May be Forced to do so

PONSFORD'S DENIAL

Brisbane, May 6.
"If the Board of Control persists in the present attitude towards C. V. Grimmett in regard to the last English tour it would not surprise me to see him go to England," said W. A. Oldfield, the Australian wicketkeeper, to-day.

He was asked if there was any truth in the rumour that three prominent Australian players were likely to go to England shortly following in A. G. Fairfax's footsteps. Though he knew nothing definitely, Oldfield said that Grimmett, W. H. Ponsford, and H. E. P. Whitfield, were the players mentioned.

Oldfield arrived in Brisbane on the Orungal on Thursday and left to-day for Cairns, where he and his wife will spend a holiday.

He indignantly denied the suggestion that he intended to retire. "The best answer to that is that I am still playing," he said.

W. H. Ponsford said to-night that he knew nothing of any proposal that he should go to England to play cricket.

BENNY LEONARD'S
COMEBACK.Beats Saviola on Points.

FIGHTING LIKE A TIGER.

New York, June 8.
Benny Leonard, who retired as undefeated lightweight champion of the world, to-night moved a step further in his comeback trip when he gained a points decision over Andy Saviola the Brooklyn welterweight in a ten round fight.

The two mixed throughout, with Leonard having the edge in most of the rounds.

Leonard's old-time punches were apparently lacking, but his speed and timing that made him a master ringman were enough to conquer his opponent. The former champion was shifty, dodging most of Saviola's terrific wallop.

Leonard fought like a tiger from start to finish, winning the verdict without a voice of protest.

Saviola is a third-rate welter. He has a fair record behind him, winning most of his engagements on points.

Leonard is one of several "comebackers," along with Jack Dempsey, former world's heavyweight champion, Jack Delaney and Paul Berlenbach.

Leonard held the lightweight title from 1917 to 1924, when he retired out of respect for his mother's wishes that he would leave the ring.

Since his retirement he has been an actor on the vaudeville and legitimate stage, a newspaper correspondent, and an owner of a professional hockey team.

He started his career in 1912, when he was but 15 years old. He participated in no less than 200 bouts, almost one-third of which he won by knockouts.

BOOTH TAKES 3 WICKETS.

Shanghai, June 9.
The Single XI proved too strong for the Married XI on the S.C.C. ground yesterday and won comfortably by 33 runs thanks to excellent bowling by R. S. Elliott, the Interceptor.

On paper the Married XI looked to be the more formidable combination, as they possessed Robson, Barson, Coward, Leach and Mansel-Smith, all of whom represented Shanghai last month. The Single XI could boast of only two Interceptors, Elliott and Booth, but both came off, and with Hegarty and Sinclair jumping into good batting form the bachelors gained a meritorious victory.

There are so many things to think of in the golf swing that you cannot get along at all unless you give your whole mind to the job, and the more of a rabbit a man is the more completely does the game shut all his other worries out of his mind while he is in the bunkers or the rough.—Archie Compston.

Self Analysis Is Not Good For Your Golf

Writes Archie Compston

Have you ever played in a Kickers' Competition? I never heard of one being staged in this country, but in the States, where the ordinary club takes his game more seriously than he does here, the Kickers' Competition is a favorite side-show at the Country Club Tournaments.

The Kickers' Competition is got up for the benefit of the Hard Lines Gads, the players who come in to the Nineteenth Hole to wring the hearts of the Sympathetic Listeners' Club with their stories of bad luck. In a Kickers' Competition the player is allowed to play one stroke over again at each hole; only he must make up his mind to do it immediately after the stroke is played, and if his second attempt is still worse, he cannot go back to the first one. It is quite a good idea, but I have never heard that it is supposed to be a serious business.

We are all Kickers. In a sense we are all Kickers. What lets us down is the three or four bad holes that spoil the perfect round. If we could only cut out the occasional bad shot we feel that we should be quite all right. The difficulty is to find a way of doing it.

Where do these occasional bad shots come from? If the player had the courage to walk up to our ball and hit it, he could not go wrong. If he had the patience to practise each stroke until the whole movement became absolutely automatic, he would have no occasion for vain regrets. But as long as he is content to play the game in his usual happy-go-lucky style, he only succeeds by "keeping his eye on the ball."

"Keep your eye on the ball," is the oldest rule in golf, and it stands for a series of little things. Speaking at a meeting of some golfers, I heard last year Mr. Pitt-Rivers say: "I do not know whether it has ever struck you how wrong it is that people can say 'keep your eye on the ball'." There is a tremendous contradiction between "keep your eye on the ball" and "keep your mind on the ball."

He is absolutely right. This contradiction is the most amazing thing in the world, as you would realize if you got a series of slow motion pictures of the drives of some of your friends of the Long Handicap Brigade from the first tee on a Saturday afternoon.

This golf game would be a lot simpler for the average golfer if he would only be content to trust to his eye to visualize the stroke and pass the necessary orders on to his muscles. His muscles know so much more about how to play the stroke than he does!

But no, he must always be interfering and giving long-winded instructions to his muscles how to do it. Listen to Jorkins explaining the whole thing to the rest of the bunch in the locker-room. Jorkins's handicap is 18, but there never was an 18-handicap man yet who could not tell all the 20-handicap men exactly how it is done.

Just think of a child learning to walk. You cannot make the thing any easier for him by trying to explain to him how it is done. You can only encourage him to make the trial, and when he does, to hold his muscles know all about it.

FRANCE NOW SEEKING
TENNIS SCALPS.Suzanne Training
Mme. Mathieu.

FOR MATCH WITH HELEN WILLS.

London, May 12.
France is going to make her strongest bid, since the days of Suzanne Lenglen, to re-capture both premier Wimbledon titles, men's singles and women's singles, at lawn tennis this year.

For this reason the great Lenglen has been recently coaching the French champion, Mme. Mathieu, who won at Bournemouth this year in the British Hard Court championships.

There has never been a woman player who revealed such marvelous ball control, such polished court-craft as the incomparable Suzanne. No one could be better fitted to supervise the training of her successor, and Mme. Lenglen is being accredited with a keen desire to engineer the downfall this year of Mrs. Helen Wills Moody.

On this account she has taken in hand Mme. Mathieu and experts declare that the pupil is now beginning to produce some of the Lenglen genius in mixing up the long and short returns which always worried Helen so much.

Suzanne's secret, it is declared, is that Mrs. Moody must be made to run up and down the court far more than from side to side. Mrs. Moody it is thought will this year be given her strongest challenge since the retirement of Mme. Lenglen.

Baseball Offer

OLYMPIC TRY-OUT.

Baton Rouge, La.
The best all-round athlete in the freshman class at Louisiana State university this year is not a football player.

But Nathan Blair is almost a one-man track team, a crack baseball player and performs well on the hardwood. He's good enough on the track to make Coach Bernie Moore plan to enter him in the Olympic decathlon tryouts at New Orleans this spring.

Blair refused to accept several opportunities to play professional baseball this spring.

The Art of Doubles Play Ground Shot Man and Volleyer

By Ray Dunlop

The ideal doubles combination is the pairing of a good ground shot player and a good volleyer. The ground shots of the one make openings for volleyer to finish off.

Of the present day doubles pairs Jack Crawford is a great driver and Harry Hopman a good volleyer. In the C. Donohoe and R. Dunlop combination, Donohoe is the driver and Dunlop the volleyer.

In doubles, as also in singles, it should always be remembered that the service is an attacking shot, and should always be used as such. It should always be the aim of the player in a doubles to hold his service. In a championship it is almost a crime to lose one's service. A glance at the results of most of the doubles results in recent championships shows that one lost service has been responsible for a lost set.

In a doubles where the players are of about the same standard, a lost service again means a lost set, or as it is called, a "break through."

The ideal service in a doubles is the alicie into the first or forehand court which keeps very low and gives the net player an opportunity of making an interception. The ball must be hit up by the receiver to get it over the net, and the movement at the net, whether he intercepts or not, will always add to the mental difficulty of the receiver in playing the shot.

How To Serve.
The most effective service into the second or backhand court is the high, bounding, so-called "American" service, which bounces away to the receiver's backhand. As very few players like a high bounding ball on the backhand, the reply is often very weak and is usually to the net man, giving him an easy kill.

Care should be taken to see that you are in line with your partner. If he is up at the net and you are at the back of the court, it gives the opponents many angles to exploit. When you find that you are at the net with your partner back, drop back to him if he finds he cannot come up to the net to keep in a line with you.

The most successful position in doubles is the net one. It is the only attacking position, and as a successful doubles pair are always ready to attack, they must do so from the net.

When your partner is serving and you are at the net you must watch for a lob. As he is coming in fast after his service it is almost impossible for him to stop and go after the lob. The net player must be ready for and go after lobs.

When serving, if you serve to the corners of the court, come in on a wide angle when following in to the net, as the net man will force a wide return. If, however, you serve down the centre of the court, come up to the net on almost a straight line as the easiest shot for your opponent on this service is straight down the centre.

Volley Deep.
When volleying, always volley deep to the back of the court and do not go for angles unless the shot is sure to be a winner. If an angled shot is not a winner it gives your opponent many angles to which to play his return, as you open up the court for him.

When lobbing, always lob high, and do not try very often for the fast lob that just goes over your opponent's head, as in most cases when the opponent is fast on his feet he is able to run back quickly and get under the toes; then he has an easy smash. The suspense of a high toss coming down will often cause a player to miss it, and few can make winners from one. C. Donohoe, is an excellent example of a high tosser.

The slow dropping return of service to the server's feet is more effective than a fast return, which is easier for a good volleyer to volley.

When one receiver is returning very well, it is advisable for his partner to stand on the service line and wait for an interception. Care should be taken, however, when the rally once begins, to remember the straight line formation. If your partner is not returning well it would be suicide to stand up. When smashing, always aim well back into the court, as most smashes that miss are hit into the net.

First-Class Averages

London, June 5.

The weather was most unsuitable for cricket to-day, being cold and cheerless, although wickets were hard.

One of the main features of the day's play was Hearne's 143 not out for Middlesex in the game against Lancashire, not because of its brilliancy but because it took him five hours to make. The Lord's crowd was sarcastic, but Hearne kept calm and remained content to get his runs slowly. Hendren made 72 out of the Middlesex score of 226 for 8.

(tea) but his batting was affected by the injury to his hand, which has not fully recovered. Duckworth gave an excellent display behind the stumps for Lancashire.

Yorkshire scored 212 for 8 (tea) against Warwickshire at Hull, and as a team they were disappointing.

They were without Holmes, who is down with an attack of lumbago.

Hampshire interestingly, Derbyshire did badly in their Cheshire match against Hampshire, being all out for 135.

Hampshire, having beaten Yorkshire and the Indians, the victory over the champions was the first they had won against them since 1922, when at Bradford they got Yorkshire out for 56 in their first innings, and won by five wickets. One of the most interesting matches of the Lord's season, the Hampshire captain, has recovered his form and made 45 out of 68 in just over an hour.

to-day for Derbyshire. Hampshire had Boyes injured during the Derbyshire innings. He was felled close in and was struck on the temple by a hit from Lee, and felled. He was carried off the field unconscious, but his condition is stated to be not serious.

Hammond was also slightly injured on the knee when batting Gloucestershire, (192 for 5 at tea) against Sussex at Hove.

Flax, Woolley Innings. Woolley played a fine faultless innings for Kent against Glamorgan at Swansea, making 146 out of a total of 332 for 5 (tea) before tamely hitting up a simple catch mid-on.

Disquietude in the Far East.

The cable to-day announcing that alarm is being felt in England that the economic position in Japan may react with grave consequences in the Far East causes no surprise as anyone familiar with the situation is aware of the danger that exists in the Far East. It is a matter for congratulation that the Shanghai withdrawal of the Japanese troops has been accomplished, but this makes one of the few assuring events among the startling happenings of the past nine months. The Sino-Japanese dispute is far from settled; the boycott still continues, and the economic crisis in Japan may easily precipitate hasty action which might quite conceivably lead to a fresh outbreak. In the face of the Japanese determination to hold the acquired territory now styled Manchukuo, international action will have to be deliberate and judiciously-planned, and the League Council will be faced with a difficult and dangerous problem when the Lytton Commission's report is received at the end of the summer. At the moment the League appears powerless, as Tokyo has intimated that Japan would fight to the limit to retain Manchuria. Now, Tokyo appears engrossed with the question of whether official recognition should be extended to the new State. The humour of this action does not seem to have impressed the Japanese, who are making a great display on a matter which is purely technical. The question of recognition is merely a question whether it would be diplomatically advisable to make a straightforward and candid admission of the relations with Manchuria. It is of little significance, as everyone is aware that Japanese Generals are controlling the country; that Japanese enterprises are being started there on a big scale; that immigration plans are under consideration; and that the present administration, under the nominal leadership of Hsiao Fuyi, is merely a puppet Government. If, as is rumored, Count Uchida accepts the portfolio as Foreign Minister in the Saito Ministry, it is almost certain that official recognition will be accorded the new State, as the former president of the South Manchuria Railway is particularly anxious that the closest relationship be maintained between the two countries. Count Uchida, recognized as one of the most accomplished and brilliant commercial leaders and statesmen in the Island Empire, exerts a tremendous influence owing to his powerful position in the commercial world. Having spent several years in Manchuria, he is an authority on that country and is one of the leaders for the movement for Japanese development and expansion of the vast, rich territory. His appointment as Foreign Minister, would, therefore, be significant in that it would indicate a triumph for the Imperialists over the industrial and agricultural factions which have been protesting strongly against the large investments in Manchuria at a time when money is urgently needed at home. Business, national, private and public, is in an extremely bad way in Japan, and the economic crisis is so severe that social and political revolution is threatened. The agrarian classes are almost in open revolt now, and if immediate and comprehensive relief is not granted them they have threatened violence. If Japan can hold Manchuria, and her present confidence appears not unjustified, notwithstanding the protests of the League and the Soviet menace, there is no question that development of that country will prove of enormous value to Japan in the future. But the present administrators at Tokyo do not seem to realize that the present must be safeguarded before the future can be realized. The seriousness of Japan's national position will require the utmost effort of all the citizens and the whole country to remedy and the leaders would be well-advised to look more to the present instead of building dreams of vast Empire expansion.

On a charge of giving false information to two pawnshops, the Shin Lee and the Kong Ping, an unemployed Chinese was fined by Mr. Grantham this morning in the Central Police Court. Det. Sgt. T. J. Hemmley said that in the early hours of yesterday morning the defendant reported to the Police that he had been robbed. After two hours' enquiry, the report was found to be false. The defendant was fined $10 and costs. The pawnshops were found to be in the defendant's possession.

Correspondence.

CHATHAM ROAD (KOWLOON) PLAYGROUND.

[The Editor, "China Mail."]
Sir,—Will you please do me the favour to publish, for the information of Kowloon residents, the enclosed letter from the Hon. Mr. E. R. Hallifax, C.M.G., Colonial Secretary, conveying the Government's decision on the Chatham Road Children's Playground at Kowloon?

I am much indebted to His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government and to the Colonial Secretary for their kindness in giving to my representations the consideration the Government did on the question of these playgrounds. I have endeavoured to place before the Government the views of Kowloon residents, including those of the Residents' Association, as fairly and as impartially as possible. The views, as stated in Mr. Hallifax's letter, were divergent, and in the circumstances I cannot help thinking that the Government's decision is in the best interests of all concerned.

Yours, etc.,
J. P. BRAGA.

Hong Kong, June 13, 1932.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Hong Kong.

9th June, 1932.

Dear Mr. Braga,

CHATHAM ROAD PLAYGROUND

[The Editor, "China Mail."]

With regard to your letter of 12th April (which I regret has remained so long unanswered), it appears to the Government that the correct solution of the difficulties which are shown in the divergent views you forward under cover of your letter is to concentrate on the Cox's Road Site as a Playground while leaving the Chatham Road Site to develop into an open space with shelter with a view more to the requirements of grown up people. Instructions have accordingly been issued that this line of action should be followed.

(Sd.) E. R. HALLIFAX.

PROMOTION OF SIR
MILES LAMPSON.Predicted In London.

London, Yesterday.
The future of Sir Miles Lampson, British Minister to China, is being discussed in diplomatic circles, on the assumption that he is unlikely to return to China on the expiration of the leave of six months, which he is at present enjoying, except perhaps, for a few months.
His promotion to ambassadorial rank is regarded as likely to be announced before the end of 1932. Several embassies in Europe and South America are likely to be vacant in 1933.
The only question is whether Sir Miles will succeed in one, or whether Sir Robert Vansittart, Permanent Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, would care to exchange his present appointment for one, in which event Sir Miles might be asked to succeed Sir Robert Vansittart.—Reuter.

News in Brief.

The "Clinic" motor van for the New Territories will be open for inspection to the public at 5 p.m. to-day at the Kowloon Hospital.

Whilst working in Jardine's Coal-yard, Great George's Street last night, a coolie, Yip Kam-po, of 19 Stone Nuffish Lane, was killed by a stone pillar which accidentally fell on him.

Lance-Sergeant Wong Chiu, was sent to the Government Civil Hospital yesterday for treatment after being bitten in the leg by a dog owned by a Chinese living at 5 Stanton Street.

Alighting from a tram which was still in motion near the Bay View Police Station yesterday, a malevolent Chinaman (2177) snatched a bag containing a sum of $100 from the Government Civil Hospital.

REPUBLICAN PARTY
NOMINATIONS.Prohibition Disturbing
Factor Once More.

HOOVER'S ATTITUDE.

Chicago, June 12.
Trouble is expected at the Republican National Convention which is opening at Chicago to-morrow (Monday) to re-nominate President Hoover as the party candidate for the Presidency.

Many Prohibitionists are disturbed by the reports that President Hoover is disposed to favour the re-submission of the issue to the country.

It is suggested that the "Dry" leaders may boycott the presidential campaign and concentrate on electing "Dry" members to Congress, regardless of party. The proposal to invite Senator Borah as the head of an independent Dry Party appears to be hanging fire.

Another Convert.
Mr. Franklin Roosevelt, the Governor of New York State, who is seeking nomination as the Democratic candidate in the Presidential election, has taken his cue from Mr. John D. Rockefeller, Junr., and has declared himself — after months of non-committal statements — in favour of expediting the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment.

There are very few in the Democratic camp who will oppose a referendum plank in the Democratic platform and it seems probable (assuming the re-nomination of Mr. Hoover) that Prohibition will cease to be a serious election issue. Mr. Al Smith is Roosevelt's chief rival to the nomination. — Reuter's American Service.

A Survey of Democrat Field.
Stamford, Conn., June 3.

Mr. Homer Cummings, former Democratic national committee chairman, made a survey of the present situation of Democratic delegates to-day and announced the following as the probable current line-up: For Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York, 669 delegates, for other candidates, 415 delegates, doubtful or still to be decided, 72 delegates.

VILLAGE ROAD
CASE.Magistrate's Illness
Causes Adjournment.

Cheng Kwok-yau, who is charged with instigating the murder of Fung at Village Road on March 24 made a formal appearance before Mr. Schofield in the Central Police Court this morning.

His Worship said, "The Assistant Attorney-General and your solicitor, defendant, have agreed that this case had better be put over, owing to the illness of Mr. Wynne-Jones, until Monday afternoon next at 2.30 p.m."

"CANNED GINGER."

Chinese Smugglers
Foiled in Singapore.

Singapore, May 27.
Three packing cases declared and marked as containing tins of "canned ginger" dispatched from Hong Kong to a firm in Singapore, failed to pass officers of the Singapore Preventive Service, and investigation showed that the cases contained contraband chandu valued at over $9,000.

Inquiries led to the arrest of first, a man who came to take delivery and then two others who were traced to a lodging house in Seah Street.

When three young Chinese who were charged with being concerned in the importation of contraband into the Colony, were found guilty by Mr. G. C. Dodd, the Singapore Criminal District Judge, Mr. H. W. Fear, head of the Singapore Preventive Service, said that they were not able to get the actual importer by whom the accused were evidently employed. He said he hoped to get the head man soon.
Mr. Fear added that the accused were only youths but they were undesirable characters. He said he had imposed a fine of $1,000 each on the three youths, and that they were to be kept in the Government Civil Hospital.

WHEN IRISH WILL BE FOREIGNERSEffect of Severance from Empire.

LORD DERBY'S VIEWS

Speaking at Liverpool, Lord Derby said they must all feel concerned at what was going on in the Free State of Ireland.

"I don't think that those who are cutting themselves adrift from England and from Great Britain and the Dominions across the seas — because that is what it amounts to — quite realise what they are doing."

"I would like to see our Government let them clearly understand what it means — that if they cut themselves adrift in this way they are just as much the foreigner to this country as any other country in the world, and that when the time comes, as it must come, when we will have preferential treatment between ourselves, our Colonies, and the Dominions, they will be out of it and suffer for it."

"Incidentally, if every Irishman became a foreigner and therefore no longer entitled to the privileges of the British Empire, they might see that there is more wisdom and prosperity in store for their country by remaining a part of the Empire than by severing themselves from it."

CRANK SHAFT.

"A Curious Thing to Steal"

"A most curious thing to steal, even if one is hard up for money," remarked Mr. W. Schofield in the Central Police Court this morning, when he sentenced an unemployed Chinese to six weeks' jail for stealing an iron crank shaft from 224, Lockhart Road, an engineering shop.

Inspector McClelland remarked that these people as a general rule found money "some way or the other."

His Worship: Why should you steal this particular sort of thing?

Defendant: I found it at the doorway, and I picked it up.

HOOKING A SHARK.

Four-Inch Baby Fished in Australia.

Sydney.
A queer baby, born to be an outlay, quivered feebly in a dish at the Australian Museum. A mere four inches long, it is a Port Jackson shark, and the youngest of its kind that has ever been seen.

Mr. William Norris, of Waverley, was fishing at La Perouse when he hooked something that he thought at first was a piece of rock, but which, on being hauled up, seemed to be a small fish.

Mr. Norris's son, however — being one of those moderns who, so to say, teach their grandmothers to suck eggs — held that the haul was a shark's egg. And so it proved.

When opened in the Australian Museum, the curious specimen produced a live baby shark, complete with yoke-sack attached to the lower portion of the under-side of its neck — a yoke-sack 1½ inch in diameter, which supports the baby during its 12 months or so in the egg.

In addition to this curious sack, the shark infant had on its egg-casing a number of long tendrils, these being used, apparently, to attach the egg to sea-weed or rock. It was these that caused the fisherman's line to sag.

The Port Jackson shark is the only species that lay eggs.

OCEAN COAL

Satisfactory Results of Wilsons, Ltd.

Appeal For Liberty Of Action

London, May 11.
The twenty-fourth annual ordinary general meeting of Ocean Coal and Wilsons Ltd. was held yesterday at Salisbury House, London-wall, E.C. Mr. David Davies (the chairman of the company) presided. The chairman, in moving the adoption of the report and accounts, said: The amount of profits available for distribution at December 31, 1931, is £114,794. The interest on the Four per Cent. Debenture stock and the dividends on the Preference shares have also been paid for the year 1931, so that the gross total of profits divided amounts to £184,707. While our profits are considerably less than in 1930, considering the prevailing conditions throughout the world, this result can be regarded as satisfactory.

World trade was even worse in 1931 than in 1930. So far as the coal trade is concerned, the prolonged and severe depression throughout the iron, steel, ship-building, carrying and engineering industries caused a further shrinkage in the demand for fuel. In our export trade, we have to face greater difficulties than ever. Owing to their inability to dispose of their own output, the French Government introduced a licence system in August, which applies to all imported coal. More recently Belgium and Germany have taken similar action. The aggregate result of these restrictions has been to reduce considerably the quantity exported from this country.

It is anticipated that the 10 per cent. tariff on imports of iron and steel, since increased to 85-1-3, will have a beneficial effect upon that industry, and if a revival takes place on a substantial scale the coal trade will naturally benefit to a corresponding extent. Consequently, there is reason to hope for some improvement in our trade during the remainder of this year. Shackles on Coal Trade.

We would appeal to the National Government to restore liberty of action to the coal trade and to free it from those shackles which now impede its recovery. No Act of Parliament, no organisation imposed upon us from outside, can win back for us our former position in the markets of the world. We must achieve this through our own enterprise and initiative. Our business is, in the main, an export business. We are told by the Government and the economists that exports must be encouraged. Consequently, we may confidently anticipate that—at any rate, so far worthy that the advance has been as the export trade is concerned—obtained with ordinary microscopic the Government will allow the provisions of the 1930 Act to lapse on December 31 of this year. Coming now to Wilsons side of for measles or even Gye's "cancer our business, I am sure you will virus," may be discovered to be realise the extraordinary difficulties, visible after all.

NOTEWORTHY DISCOVERY

Microbes' Identity Cards

It is generally accepted (writes the Morning Post Medical Correspondent) that a special group of living organisms which cause such diseases as measles, smallpox, and infantile paralysis, for example, are smaller than the more common bacteria, and it is customary to speak of these invisible structures as "ultra-microscopic." Much of the difficulty which exists in providing anti-sera for these so-called "virus diseases" is due to the invisibility of the casual organisms.

A long step forward is revealed in the current issue of "The Lancet," where Professor J. G. Ledingham and Dr. G. H. Eagles, of the Lister Institute, report that the virus of vaccination serum can be seen. Nearly 80 years ago a worker on the Continent named Paschen put forward similar claims and for this long period "Paschen bodies" have been the subject of a smouldering controversy.

The present research work began with a potent suspension of the vaccination virus in a special filter which was known to retain the virus particles. The contents of this filter were then "spun" in a new model high-speed centrifuge apparatus, capable of speeds up to 14,000 revolutions per minute. The deposits thus obtained were rich in the so-called Paschen bodies, and the potency of the deposits varied with the number of Paschen bodies they contained.

Professor Ledingham and his co-worker went further and washed these bodies free from all virus solution, and their strength was still maintained. This, they assert, leaves no doubt that these visible structures are the cause of the reactions in the skin produced by vaccination. Since hitherto "vaccination" was considered to be due to an invisible virus, this work is a great advance. It is not anticipated that—at any rate, so far worthy that the advance has been as the export trade is concerned—obtained with ordinary microscopic the Government will allow the provisions of the 1930 Act to lapse on December 31 of this year. Coming now to Wilsons side of for measles or even Gye's "cancer our business, I am sure you will virus," may be discovered to be realise the extraordinary difficulties, visible after all.

HARBOUR OFFICE.

Low Freight Figures Returned.

The Harbour Office Reports for the 24 hours ended 9 a.m. yesterday gave a fair movement of vessels with a fair tonnage. Freight rates were low, both the inwards and throughs falling to reach five figures. The total tonnage entered was 27,980.

There were eight inward registries, of which three were British and none of four figures, while of the eight throughs, three were British and three of four figures.

Passengers entered during the period included 24 Europeans and 888 Asiatic deck, British vessels carrying 452 out of the total in all classes.

STILL GOING STRONG!

Titanic "Victim" Laughs At U.S. Canard.

"Bless my soul, I'm still going strong and in the best of health and happiness," said Commander C. H. Lightoller when informed at Putney, that he was "lying helpless and destitute in San Francisco."

A cablegram from the United States, referring to the twentieth anniversary of the sinking of the Titanic, in which the commander had been second officer, reported that "Charles Herbert Lightoller, whose bravery was one of the redeeming features of the disaster, is lying forgotten, helpless, and destitute in Santa Rosa Hospital, California."

"I haven't been in the United States since I gave up the sea in 1923," Commander Lightoller said. "The person who is evidently impersonating me must be the victim of hallucinations."

Captain J. D. Daintree, C.B.E., retired, has been awarded a Naval Pension of £55 a year, in the vacancy created by the death of Captain S. R. Olivier, C.M.G., retired, on January 21.

SUCCESS OF MOTOR SHIP

SPEED OF 18.4 KNOTS

Voyage from Bangkok to Tilbury.

With rather more frequency than has been necessary or desirable we are reminded of depression in shipbuilding and shipowning. It is satisfactory to note a change, however slight, in the position and we think that the most should be made of every sign which points to renewed prosperity in the industries concerned. In the following account of the M.S. "Erria's" maiden trip we are glad to be able to strike a note of optimism. What happened in the case of her return voyage from the East may be a more or less isolated instance in these times of scarce freights and depleted passenger bookings, but it is none the less satisfactory for that.

The "Erria," a 9,000-ton ship with 37 passenger cabins, is owned by the East Asiatic Co., and fitted with 9,400 i.p.h. Burmeister and Wain two-stroke double-acting Diesel machinery. She returned from Bangkok last month with a full cargo and every passenger cabin occupied. She made a fine sight as we watched her approaching Tilbury, and by arrangement with the owners' representatives in this country, Messrs. Escombe McGrath and Co., we boarded the vessel and learned the particulars of her first round trip.

The "Erria" is a four-master with no funnel and is the fastest Danish-built ship. She was constructed by the Naskov Shipyards and on her trials attained a speed of 18.4 knots. Her service speed is for the time being in excess of requirements and on the maiden voyage it was maintained at little more than 15 knots. This proved too fast for the schedule. She was booked to arrive at Tilbury on April 16th when she departed from Bangkok on the return run. Actually, she arrived three days ahead of time.

JAPAN'S ECONOMIC POVERTY CAUSES ALARM

FARMERS THREATEN TROUBLE UNLESS RELIEVED.

Recognition of Manchukuo.

Tokyo, Yesterday.
The Selyukai resolution for the relief of farmers has been passed by the Lower House unanimously. Viscount Saito, Premier, declared it was the intention of the Government to put it into effect as soon as possible.

Developments Threat.

The city is at present deluged with peasant delegations from all parts of Japan, urging on the authorities the necessity for immediate relief measures in agrarian districts, and threatening further developments, if the situation is not remedied quickly.

The Army is fully alive to the dangers of the situation, and is doing its utmost to stave off the possibility of serious agrarian outbreaks.

The Prime Minister, Viscount Saito, also recognises the gravity of the situation, and is doing his best to relieve it.

It is believed that the peasant delegations are being directed by a Central organisation.

Count Uchida is conferring with the War Minister, General Araki on the policy in Manchuria, the possible recognition of Manchukuo. It is expected that Count Uchida will see Viscount Saito, Premier, to-day or to-morrow with reference to the invitation to become Foreign Minister.

Recognition of Manchukuo.

The Selyukai and Minseito parties have decided to present a joint resolution to the Diet to-morrow, urging the Government to recognise the Manchukuo Government as soon as possible. The Government appears sympathetic to the matter but official quarters intimate that definite action is unlikely before the contents of the Lytton Commission's report are revealed in September.

Count Uchida, chairman of the S.M.R., who arrived in Tokyo yesterday, is known to favour early recognition, and consequently proponents of the proposal are hoping he will accept the Premier's offer of the Foreign portfolio. Inner circles intimate that the acceptance is by no means assured, despite the widespread belief that his acceptance is certain.

Growing Poverty in Japan.

London, Yesterday.
The possibility of very serious reactions, with consequent reactions in the whole of the Far East, unless the growing poverty in Japan is arrested, is a development, cognisance of which is taken in England in her close observation of the Far Eastern situation.

It is realised that Japan's economic condition has greatly worsened since the struggle with China in Shanghai and Manchuria. This has been evidenced by the extent of Japanese expenditure on imported munitions and the effects of the implacable boycott imposed on Japanese goods by China.

The Financial News points out that Japanese economic stability is dependent, to a vital extent, on her international trade, and its restoration is a very urgent task confronting the Far East. In this connection, an important aspect of the Shanghai conference—"Shanghai's function as a sheet anchor"—to China is emphasised by Mr. O. M. Green, formerly Editor of the North China Daily News, in a letter to the Manchester Guardian in regard to comment made by that journal on the Shanghai conference last week.

Mr. Green observes that the Shanghai question is older than the recent Japanese incursion, as evidenced by the establishment of the enquiry by Judge Feetham in 1930, with its reasonable basic recommendations. He is of the opinion that Shanghai's stability, before the requisite trade revival in the Far East and the present uncertainty of Shanghai's future, is undoubtedly affecting trade, and remarks that there is no malignity in the idea of a proposed conference by the interested Powers.

INTEGRITY OF CHINESE CUSTOMS.

Japan's Assurances To England.

London, Yesterday.
"The Japanese Government has informed us that they share our desire to see the integrity of the Chinese Maritime Customs maintained, and that Japanese control of the Manchurian Customs will be entirely inconsistent with those assurances. Capt. Anthony Eden, Foreign Under Secretary, replied thus to a question on this matter in the House of Commons by Sir A. M. Samuel to-day.

Captain Eden, replying to Mr. Morgan Jones said it was not possible to accept the suggestion of the proposed Round Table Conference to be held at Geneva instead of Shanghai as planned by the League Council meeting on February 23. If and when any conclusion was reached as a result of the confidential discussions which must precede the setting up of such a conference, he did not doubt that the Powers concerned would arrange to keep the League fully informed.—Reuter.

ARMED ROBBERY IN CENTRAL.

Rusty File Daggers Used.

WOMEN TERRORISED.

Six Men Escape with Big Haul.

Rusty file daggers and rolls of wire were used by six Chinese who perpetrated a robbery on the first floor of 23 Lee Yuen Street West, Central district, shortly before seven o'clock this morning. They made good their escape with a haul of jewellery and money to the total value of $745.

Ho Heung, a married woman, who together with another woman were the only occupants on the premises at the time, told the Police that she was aroused by a noise at the stair door. On opening it she saw a man, who had called five days ago, and who had arranged to occupy a rented cubicle, which had been advertised. Whilst talking over the final bargain, five others followed, and brandishing their file daggers drove the two women to a cubicle where they were bound and gagged.

The robbers proceeded to ransack the floor, taking with them all the money and jewellery they could lay their hands on. The jewellery included a platinum ring set with a diamond, valued at $100, also a pair of rattan bangles mounted with gold and another pair of twisted pattern bangles, to the value of $100.

After the women had freed themselves from their bonds, the Police were sent for, Inspector J. Murphy taking charge of the investigations.

"MARTYR SQUAD."

Cagney Hollywood's Latest "Recruit."

MARLENE DIETRICH SUSPENDED.

Marlene Dietrich and James Cagney, two of the most highly paid performers in films, have been suspended by their studios because of disputes over work and salary respectively.

The Paramount organisation suspended the contract of Josef von Sternberg, the German director of Fraulien Dietrich's best known films, following a quarrel over the form in which "The Blonde Venus," in which Dietrich and Herr von Sternberg are now engaged, was to be filmed, and the company intimated that they would not pay Fraulien Dietrich's salary any longer if she continued to refuse to work without Herr von Sternberg. Now they have suspended her contract too.

Meanwhile James Cagney, the star of "Taxi" and "Larceny Lane," whose rise to fame has been both recent and meteoric, becomes No. 3 in the martyr squad of suspended Hollywood luminaries. He has threatened to return to college and continue his studies for a degree unless his salary is raised to $4,000 a week.

TO-DAY'S TRAFFIC COURT.

Horn Annoyance.

Pang Choi, who sounded his horn extremely loudly in Hollywood Road outside the Central Police Station was fined $5. Sergeant McInnis said that car drivers were inclined to "blow" their way through crowded streets instead of driving slowly and steadily.

Speeding.

Lee Lok, the driver of a public vehicle, who drove from Bonham Street East, through Queen's Road Central to Pedder Street, at a speed averaging 25 miles per hour was fined $25.

Sergeant's Chase.

Going at a speed of 45 miles an hour on his motor cycle, Traffic-Sergeant M. Clarke was unable to catch Cheung Man, who speeded in Hennessy Road. By the time, the Sergeant did catch him, the defendant had driven to the Canton Steamship wharf and was returning to Wanchai. Defendant had two previous convictions for negligent driving.

In imposing a fine of $40, his Worship recommended the defendant's licence to be cancelled.

$20 Fine.

Cho Fau-sang, the driver of a public car, who cut across a tram-car in Des Voeux Road Central, and in turning into Wardley Street, just missed running into Traffic-Sergeant A. R. Brittain was fined $20.

Taxi Driver Fined.

Yick Lam, the driver of a taxi-cab, who overtook a private motor car at a nasty bend near Shing Wong Street in Caine Road, was fined $30 and warned against a repetition of the offence by his Worship.

Traffic-Inspector C. F. Alexander said he was riding in motorcycle combination in the opposite direction, and a collision was luckily avoided.

Lady Driver Fined.

For failing to obey the traffic light signal at the junction of Queen's Road East and Arsenal Street, Miss Lu How-ming was fined $10.

Defendant pleaded that the hood of her car was low and she was unable to see the lights.

His Worship, on being informed by Inspector Alexander that the post had recently been lowered, remarked that it was the owner's fault if he or she bought a car with a low hood.

OFFICIALS CUT OWN PAY.

Reno, Nevada.

Voluntary reduction of salaries is becoming common among Nevada officials holding elective positions. Recently all officials in Nye County reduced their salaries voluntarily by 10 per cent, below the figure set by law. Douglas County officials speedily followed suit, with several going beyond the 10 per cent mark.

CONFERENCE AT OTTAWA.

Consultations Not Yet Complete.

MR. J. H. THOMAS.

Further Negotiations With Irish Free State.

London, To-day.

Consultations between the Canadian and other Governments to be represented at the Ottawa Conference are not yet complete but the Dominions Secretary, Mr. J. H. Thomas, in the House of Commons to-day states that during the debate on Friday all the information available will be given.

Mr. Thomas was asked whether as a result of the recent conversations with the members of the Irish Free State Government it was now proposed to conduct any further negotiations in preparation of Ottawa.

He had nothing to add to the official communique issued last Friday except that he understood it is likely that further communication would be received from the President of the Executive Council of the Irish Free State after he had had an opportunity of discussion with his colleagues.—British Wireless Service.

"BANDIT QUEEN."

Exciting Story of Capture.

HORSE RIDDEN TO DEATH.

Belgrade.

A woman who is alleged to be Queen of a tribe of wandering gypsy bandits has at last been caught.

But only after a thrilling race between gypsies on horseback and a police patrol in a motor car.

Police were searching for gypsies whom they believed to have committed a particularly brutal robbery near Vrapcha, where a peasant was left for dead after his house had been sacked.

Seeing a band of mounted gypsies on the road ahead, a patrol in a car gave chase. The gypsies tried to get to the open country to disperse among the bogs and trees where a car could not follow.

A desperate race ensued. Riders thundered along mile after mile. They urged their horses forward mercilessly. One horse fell, ridden to death. Then two more fell.

Police jumped from their cars, and captured the riders. One of the prisoners was found to be a woman, who had ridden astride and without a saddle—like the men.

She is believed to have been the "brains" of a band which has robbed and plundered from the north of Slovenia to the south of Bosnia.
